

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) has released the results of the annual audit of the U.S. House of Representatives for fiscal year 2007. For the tenth consecutive year, the House has received an unqualified or “clean” opinion – and demonstrated continued financial improvement. This year, in the interest of economy and efficiency, the OIG is issuing its report electronically. Members interested in reading the Financial Statement Audit can click here to download a copy

.

To obtain a bound copy, or for additional information on the report, contact the Office of the Inspector General at 6-1250.